By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—The Senate group investigating compulsory manpower controls, recommended lengthening the work week to 48 hours, and urged that the government take steps to prevent a possible answer to the question of policy whether any such measure is needed.

The 40-hour week, which has been in effect since the war began, is being considered by the committee as a possible answer to the question of policy whether any such measure is needed.

The committee is also considering the question of whether any such measure is needed.

RAF ATTACKS
TUNIS FIELDS23 Axis Planes Shot Down Including Six Large Transport Carriers.

By The Associated Press
CAIRO, Nov. 12—Twelve RAF bombers attacked an airfield near Tunis, where Axis troops and planes have been reported gathering, set 18 planes afire and damaged as many more yesterday, a joint British headquarters-RAF communiqué said today.

Allied fighters shot down 23 Axis planes in these battles, it was reported. Six of these planes were described as large transport carriers.

The mass of Rommel's retreating army has reached a point between Bardia and Gambut in Libya, the communiqué said.

Trucks and armored cars were attacked by fighters and fighter bombers of the allied air forces.

U. S. Troops Speed East
The RAF smash at the Tunis airfield was made, as United States troops were speeding toward the Tunisian border from the west, determined to crush any Axis attempt to take over the French protectorate, and at the same time be in a position to intercept Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating African corps.

Later dispatches, however, said that the Eighth army had finished clearing Egyptian territory of the enemy. The only Axis soldiers remaining were on their way east as prisoners, after a clash at Buqba, just inside Egypt, where a Nazi suicide rearguard tried to hold out yesterday.

The British communiqué said that ten allied aircraft failed to return from the operations in Libya and Tunisia.

The huge allied air strength in Egypt has now been thrown against what is left of Rommel's air power in Libya and widespread fighting developed yesterday.

Tobruk Again Head
The transport carriers apparently were being used to bring reinforcements to Rommel's army or to speed up his headlong retreat.

British bombers continued to smash at Tobruk where a sizeable garrison of Rommel's troops is waiting the arrival of the Axis desert army and other formations continued to bomb the airdromes on the Italian island of Sardinia, jumping-off place for Axis planes operating against U. S. troops in Algeria.

REPORT U. S. LANDINGS
By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 12—The Rome radio in an apparent effort to advance greater justification for the movement of Axis forces into unoccupied France and Corsica asserted today that Americans had debarked on Martinique and Guadeloupe and in French Guiana, French possessions in the western hemisphere. There has been no allied report of any such landings.

ABOARD A TRANSPORT WITH A U. S. AMPHIBIOUS BATTLE FORCE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN, Nov. 7—(Delayed)—(AP)—The explosive crash of a torpedo striking the ship just behind us ushered in the eventful final day of our convoy voyage carrying U. S. and British troops to a point from which landing operations could be carried out against Algeria.

A piercing alarm signal meaning immediate danger for our ship—heavily loaded with highly trained American soldiers and their modern battle equipment—followed instantaneously, sending army and navy gun crews racing to their battle stations.

The ship, which had been hit while trailing behind us, was smoking heavily and began falling behind as the convoy ploughed through the Mediterranean in the gray light of pre-dawn.

Two women and a fire control officer described how an enemy plane believed to be Italian glided swiftly in, loosed two torpedoes and disappeared.

As the day grew darker cannon flashes lighted the horizon in momentary flares and tracer shells cut the sky in lurid streaks. High above, the shells were bursting in clusters, but there was no evidence they scored a hit.

While anti-aircraft guns were firing, escorting destroyer dropped depth charges both in our path a few hundred yards ahead of us and to port.

At 3:10 p. m., the bridge ordered the ship to resume her normal life. The convoy ploughed on through the choppy Mediterranean under the cover of darkness.

Dinner As Usual
Immediately after the lensing of battle, a fleet mignon dinner was served with all the trimmings, including a printed menu prepared by the U. S. coast guard personnel manning the ship.

"Happy landing, au revoir," the decorated menu said.

The day of excitement capped a trip to the strait of Gibraltar.

The farmers' part in the war bond drive will be discussed at meetings of the Marion county agricultural committee on war bond and stamp sales Saturday at the Chamber of Commerce office.

A list of activities for the winter months will be outlined.

Members of the committee have been asked to attend a session at 2:30 p. m., or a second session at 7:30 p. m. The meetings were arranged by the committee chairman, A. J. Loudenslager of Marion.

Paul Lill is assistant county chairman. Chairmen of the township committees are: Richland, Victor Kreis; Waldo, Harry Strine; Tully, Fred Baldinger; Big Island, Harry Gracely; Montgomery West, F. J. GENERAL CLARK AND AIDS IN
DARING VISITAmericans Met Giraud Representatives and Obtained Valuable Information.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—The army disclosed today that Maj. Gen. Mark W. Clark, deputy supreme commander of the allied forces in French North Africa, had gone secretly by submarine to enemy territory before the North African attack started and opened negotiations with representatives of the French general, Henri Giraud.

The disclosure came in an announcement that President Roosevelt has nominated Clark for promotion to lieutenant general in recognition of his brilliant service during the preparations for the North African operation and during the attack itself.

He has seen the representative of the United Nations in the conduct of diplomatic negotiations requiring both skill and courage, the department said in a statement.

Prior to the beginning of current operations, General Clark, with a few trusted assistants, proceeded secretly in a submarine to enemy-dominated territory, where he had a secret rendezvous with representatives of General Henri Giraud.

"He has seen the representative of Gen. Henri Giraud. In this conference, General Clark opened negotiations which brought about the close collaboration of General Giraud with the United Nations.

"After the occupation of Algiers by United States troops, General Clark set up advanced headquarters in that city and conferred with Admiral Jean Ducloux. As a result of this conference, Admiral Ducloux issued orders directing that all forces under his command in French North Africa cease hostilities against American and British forces."

Blenheim Bombers
Blast Jap Ships
By The Associated Press
NEW DELHI, Nov. 12—British Blenheim bombers were reported officially today to have damaged two newly-arrived Japanese supply ships and set fires among docks in a series of heavy attacks on the port of Akyab on the west coast of Burma.

Strong resistance was encountered from enemy fighters, at least two of which were shot down while many others were damaged, a British communiqué said. Five British craft were reported missing.

A BRITISH PORT, Nov. 12—Sixteen American sailors, part of the crew of a torpedoed American merchantman, arrived today at this port, suffering from exposure after a week in a lifeboat on the North Atlantic.

They were rescued by a British destroyer. One crewman who had been with them died at sea. A second lifeboat bearing 21 other crewmen remains unreported.

Soldiers and War Plant Guards Add Military Touch to First
Nov. 11 Ceremonies Since War Began.

By EDNA S. DUTTON
Men in the olive drab uniforms of the United States Army, bearing arms, uniformed guards and firemen from the Scioto Ordnance Plant, Civilian Defense organizations, Veterans of World War I, together with city, police, firemen, civic and fraternal organizations, marched in Marion's first war-time Armistice day parade in commemoration of the 24th anniversary of the ending of World War No. 1, last night.

The parade, which got under way promptly at 7:30 o'clock, was witnessed by a crowd estimated at around 10,000 which lined the line of march east on Center street from Central Junior High school to Greenwood street, south to Church street, west to State street, north to Center street and west to the Central school ground where the marchers disbanded.

As was to be expected, the parade this year was different from other years and the crowd for the most part was solemn and quiet. Those watching the marchers lined the streets in the business

Tunisia Long Key
of Duce's Dream of Italian Empire

By The Associated Press
Allied troops racing toward Tunis today were heading for a spot in North Africa which has been very close to Benito Mussolini's heart ever since his grandiose notions about Italian empire began to take shape.

Italians have been shouting "we want Corsica, Tunisia and Nice" for years, but nothing has happened. Tunisia has remained a French protectorate for all years and it was one good reason why the French were so solidly entrenched in Africa.

The late which Tunisia held for Mussolini was largely in the harbor of Bizerte, next to Tunis and the most important (Turn to TUNISIA, Page 16)

FINAL VOTE
ON DRAFT DUESenate Approval Awaited Today on Measure To Call
18-19-Year-Olds.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—America's war leaders asked the Senate today to stamp its formal approval on a bill permitting induction of 18 and 19 year old youths without restrictions on the length of their training.

Backed by declarations from the general staff that younger fighting men were needed at once to invigorate the steadily growing army, Senator Gurney (R-S.D.) announced he would call up the bill at the first opportunity today to speed it toward the White House.

"I feel strongly," said Gurney, who introduced the bill in the Senate, "that the Senate must go along now in giving the army the tools quickly so there will be no stoppage in the fine offensive program already started."

The last apparent hazard to the legislation faded away yesterday when a group of senators, who had succeeded in winning an amendment requiring a year's pre-combat training for the teenagers, decided to abandon their fight for the provision.

Senate sentiment for a bill with no strings, appeared to be bolstered not only by the roaring vote with which the house accepted the conference committee's recommendations, but also by the mounting strength of the United Nations' drive in North Africa.

The revised bill, in addition to lowering the draft age to take in youngsters born as late as 1923, provides for deferment in induction of regularly employed, necessary farm workers, as long as they remain on the farm and until satisfactory replacements can be obtained.

Three More Nazis
Since virtually the only safeguard for the long tide fleet against the Mediterranean to join the allies if Germany moved into Tunisia, it seemed very likely that only such a threat had kept the Nazis out.

Having now German-controlled, added that Hitler, himself, decided that the Germans should not move into the one bit of France—but even this dispatch disappeared as any effort to explain the foe's magnanimity over this point.

Berlin broadcasts quoted German dispatches from Vichy saying that the French radio had revealed for all French merchant ships to call immediately at the nearest Mediterranean port of France. It gave no indication what response the appeal had brought. French sailors, of course, know that Vichy broadcast's news are German.

The Germans moved within 30 miles of Tunis by occupying the port of Marseilles. A Vichy broadcast said a strong column of German troops marched down the famous Rue Cannabiere, which leads to the waterfront, shortly after noon.

An authoritative source in London said at noon (7 a. m. Marion time) that the British had no information of any movement of French fleet units from Tunis.

He pointed out, however, that such a movement might have occurred without the knowledge of the allies. He said it would be possible for the warships—ranging from battleships to sloops—to put up a good fight if the personnel chose to resist Axis attempts to board them.

No Reply from Bey
Even as the prospect of a mighty air struggle took shape across the narrow of the Mediterranean, an allied headquarters spokesman said there was no sign of a reply from the Bey of Tunis to President Roosevelt's request that allied troops be allowed in the country, other than a Paris radio report that the Bey had granted such permission.

The Paris radio denied Axis forces had landed in Tunisia, but

TOULON NAVY BASE
AVOIDED AS NAZIS
REACH SEA COAST

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 12—The air battle for Tunisia was under way today, with allied fighters getting in the first blows, while German and Italian forces rushed to battle positions in southern France and Corsica in desperate feat of American invasion of Europe from the south.

Thus were the battle lines drawn in the western Mediterranean:

1—French naval chiefs pledged their Toulon battleship squadron to "resist all aggression" and then move kept the Toulon naval base out of Hitler's hands—for the time being at least.

2—Long-range, two-engined RAF fighters, striking presumably from Malta, attacked the airdrome of El Aghina at Tunis yesterday, destroying 19 planes and damaging that many more—all identified definitely as German Junkers, Focke-Wulf and Fiesler Storch models despite Axis denials that German or Italian air forces were in Tunisia.

3—United States troops, keeping toward Tunisia from the west, were expected at its borders today and a spokesman in London said he could not say whether they already had moved into the French protectorate for their test with the Axis.

4—The Italians announced the occupation of Corsica, French Mediterranean island which Rome long has coveted, and said their troops had passed Nice and reached the Rhone in their part of the occupation of southern France.

The Germans announced that three panzer divisions had reached the French Mediterranean coast, but it became apparent quickly that something had gone wrong with the Nazi fighter's scheme to take over the Toulon fleet, three battleships and a powerful flotilla of cruisers, destroyers and light craft.

Broadcast from the French coast of Vichy and of public statements by Vichy officials, French new agency, announced "Inasmuch as French naval chiefs at Toulon have pledged themselves to resist all aggression, German authorities have decided that Toulon shall be a separate region. Toulon will not be occupied and French warships will be safeguarded."

Although this indicated that the Germans were satisfied the French would take care of Toulon themselves if the allies attacked the base, the announcement could also be interpreted to mean that the German sailors were determined to fight the Germans if they attempted to enter.

(A Berlin broadcast said a "camp retraine" in an area set apart and by-passed.)

Only developments would tell whether the French commandos now at Toulon had entered into an understanding with the Germans or were standing off.

But at any rate it seemed to confirm reports that at least a considerable portion of the fleet still was at Toulon.

GAS RATION WORKERS
TO MEET TUESDAY
To Hold Instruction Session
at Central Junior High.

Volunteers who will handle the supplemental gasoline registration will attend a school of instruction next Tuesday night at 7:30 in Central Junior High school, C. C. Holliday, executive secretary of the Marion county rationing board, announced today.

Date and place of the supplemental registration will be announced within a day or two. The Masonic temple building, which was to have been the headquarters, will be in use by Masonic bodies for the next few weeks and rationing officials today were seeking another site.

State rationing officials yesterday told Mr. Holliday he should prepare to conduct the supplemental registration for three weeks, instead of five days as was originally planned.

In the opinion of state officials, the registration will extend at least two weeks beyond the first estimated time.

Meanwhile, city and county school officials today were working out hours for the basic registration next Wednesday through Friday.

This Is Your Fight What You Can Do To Help Win It

No. 10—The Marine Corps

THE U. S. Marine Corps is the oldest military branch of service in the United States. Marines form the fighting troops for the Navy. Today the Marine Corps includes the most comprehensive aggregation of military forces in the world.

Primary function of the Corps is combat. To that end, all its members are grounded in basic combat fundamentals. Then men are assigned to a specialist branch according to experience, aptitude and personal desires.

Application for any of the marine corps' services discussed in this article may be made through the marine corps recruiting station in the old postoffice building in Columbus.

Applicants may enlist in the regular marine corps for four years or in the reserve for the duration plus six months. After recruit training at Parris Island, S. C., men are assigned to ship or shore duty or to a specialist school.

Enlistment age limits are 17 to 35 inclusive. Men 25 to 45 may enlist for special shore duty in the U. S. Excellent physical condition and vision of 20-15, according to navy standards, are required.

Among the hundreds of branches to which a man may be assigned are marine rifle battalions, the fleet marine force, sea duty aboard big war ships, field maintenance or marine corps band, motor transport division, aviation ground and flight and many others.

Marine Corps training, open to all men, is divided into three branches.

1—Men assigned directly for special training go to one of 60 different schools for technical training. Courses, lasting from three weeks to six months, include studies ranging from anti-aircraft training and test center to spoken and written Japanese.

2—The Sea School at Norfolk, Va., instructs marines in all their duties aboard ship, including drills, duties and customs of the sea and gunnery instructions.

3—The marine corps institute of correspondence school instruction in the academic courses and vocational subjects to marines overseas and in stations in the United States.

Older Men on Guard

Men 25 to 51 inclusive are enlisted in Class IV, marine corps reserves, for limited guard duty in the U. S. Physical requirements are modified. Former service men are preferred. World war veterans are preferred. First class at enlistment. Former trainees with four years continuous service are reappointed at their rank at discharge if not higher than sergeant. They receive modified basic training.

Negatives of sound physique, 17 to 35, may enlist for special duty and will be placed on the inactive list awaiting call. They must prove efficiency in the branch applied for.

Commissioned

Graduates or students of accredited colleges 20 to 30 years old, single and physically fit, are eligible for the candidates class. They must pass an intensive 10-week course, known as the candidate's class for commission.

Men in college are placed on the reserve list until completing their education. Degrees required are: bachelor of arts, science, education, philosophy, commercial science, journalism, forestry, agriculture, industrial arts, business administration and law (if preceded by two years academic study).

College trained men who did not graduate may join the corps as enlisted men and then, if after four months they have attained a non-commissioned officer rank and have a good record, they are eligible for the candidate's class. Appointments as commissioned officers in the marine corps reserve for assignment to special aircraft warning duties are being offered to men holding bachelor of science degrees in electrical, communications or radio engineering.

College graduates with special training, physics and mathematics also are eligible. Applications should be made to the Commandant, Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.

Civilian Specialists

Civilian specialists who hold administrative posts, have high technical skill or knowledge or have held posts of authority in a specialist vocation, can earn commissions. Men with experience in aircraft, radio and communications are especially needed.

An applicant's rank depends on his age, prominence in his field and experience.

Civilian aviation specialists, known as AVS personnel, are given a special 10 week course. Upon graduation and after further training at specialty schools, they are assigned to ground administrative posts formerly held by Marine Corps pilots. They are detailed to units all over the world.

Aviation

There are three methods of entering the Marine air corps, perhaps most exciting branch of the Leathernecks.

1—Naval aviation cadet training—High school graduates 18 to 27. Train at naval reserve base to be commissioned second lieutenant in marine air corps or ensign in navy.

2—Civilian pilot refresher flight training—Civilian aircraft pilots eligible for commission in reserve. Pilots who qualify for commission are detailed to duty as flight instructors or transport pilots.

3—Non-commissioned officer pilot training—Youths who have not completed high school may enlist in Marines for general duty. After completing basic training, they may apply for non-commissioned officer pilot training, if they have attained rank of private first class or above.

Enlisted men of the Marine Corps and reserve may apply for pilot flight training leading to designation as naval aviation pilot. Civilian applicants need only enlist and undergo basic training in order to be eligible. Graduates will be assigned to duty as co-pilots of large transport aircraft; given the rank of staff sergeant.

Radio Opportunities

Appointments in the marine corps reserve with initial rank of staff sergeant are open to experienced radio operators, technicians and repairmen between 17 and 35. They will be assigned to aircraft warning maintenance duties.

Candidates must be high school graduates and must hold or have held an amateur radio operator's license, Class A or B, or a commercial radiotelegraph or radiotelephone operator's license, first or second class.

Men who meet these requirements, but are not high school graduates may enlist as privates in the corps or reserve with the assurance that they will be assigned to general communications duty if they are qualified.

Privileges

As a Marine, you have an opportunity to travel to the far corners of the world for land duty, as well as to serve aboard the big capital ships of Uncle Sam's fleet as a sea-going Marine. In Marine Corps service, you will have a place to call home.

Marine pay is the same as the Army's with 150 a month as the base for privates. Reserve pay is granted officers and enlisted men for such duties as their service or service with the organization.

Ranks in the Marine Corps are the same as in the Army.

D. U. V. Tent Gives Patriotic Program

A patriotic program given by the D. U. V. Tent No. 12, 12th Street, Marion, Ohio, Tuesday night was in charge of Mrs. Emma Weidert. Reading, "In Flanders Fields" by Mrs. Weidert, "The Birthday of the Nation" by Mrs. E. L. Weidert and a tribute to Theodore Roosevelt and a history of the Marine Corps were given. Mrs. G. L. Weidert was appointed chairman of a committee of national defense to make tabulations of hours of service rendered by men. The members made up a program for Wednesday morning.

Polished Metal "Hills" Revealed by Mask Photos

W. BLAKESLEE
World Science Editor

STADY, N. Y.—Masks of metal, made of plastic less than one wave length of light, photographed by microscope, reveal the polished metal. After other scientific instruments are used in the study of the metal, the hills and valleys are revealed. When peeled, the surface, under the microscope, reveals the hills and valleys.

These irregularities, which are greatly, despite the thinness, are revealed under an electron microscope. This plastic mask, which is used to pass the electrons to pass the photographic film, is used to get through the parts of the mask, since the mask is very thin. It is a shadow photograph, where the light or dark, exact is like the patterns of hills and valleys in the mask. The photograph of the face of the polished metal, despite the fact that the electron eye never saw this face. By this system the electron microscope enlarges the irregularities of the metal face by about 10,000 diameters.

Tunisia Is Today's Focal Point of New Allied Drive

(This column, conducted as a daily feature by Dr. Will Marx, is written today by Glenn E. Babbs. Mr. Marx is touring the war zone.)

The focal point of this global lightning war shifts hundreds of miles in a single day. Yesterday it was in Morocco and Algeria. Today it is Tunisia. The indications grow that a race for that key to the Mediterranean is developing between the formidable air fleets of Hitler and the newly launched American-British combination of mechanized land forces and air and sea power.

The war thus moves to one of history's most sanguinary and decisive battlegrounds. Modern Tunisia was built near the site of ancient Carthage and along that shore was fought out the last bitter-end struggle of the Punic wars. Then, as now, two forces contending for mastery of the known world clashed. One was destroyed with a completeness that has few parallels.

Adolf Hitler four days ago took occasion to reiterate that 17th century world was locked now in a struggle which only one can survive. There would be no more justice therefore if the air of Carthage should witness destruction as complete as that which Scipio Africanus visited on Carthage after its fall in 146 B. C. The ruins were dedicated to the infernal gods, salt was spread above the rubble, human habitation in the whole area was forbidden.

Hitler apparently has reached the Tunisian battlefield first.

Some dispatches suggest that Hitler, compelled to fall back on his air power since he can not contest allied command of the seas, will mobilize to the full his Luftwaffe, first to seize the air fields, then land infantry and perhaps light armored units, then seek mastery of the skies against the big fleets of bombers and fighters the Americans and British are moving both eastward and westward along the African shore toward a mighty convergence in Tunisia.

Hitler's drive to France's Mediterranean coast clearly shows he realizes that a decisive new phase of the war is opening, one that he can not afford to let go by default. At any rate the skies above the narrow waters—it is less than 100 miles from Cape Bon in Tunisia to Sicily—are sure to be dark with the air fleets.

So, if all goes well for the United Nations, somewhere along the African coast there should be an axis version of the British disasters of Greece and Dunkerque. Tunisia is as likely a place as any.

ARMY AIDS NUPTIALS

By The United Press

CAMP STONEMAN, Calif. — Army officers here intervened to neutralize the jinx that twice had prevented the marriage of Corp. Leonard Bielew and Miss Alberta Mikles of Cummings, O., hometown sweethearts. The jinx, which had gotten in its deadly work first in Alabama where Miss Mikles had gone for the wedding, and then at Pittsburgh, followed the couple here when an alert sounded at the moment of the wedding. Superior officers exempted Bielew from responding to the alert until the ceremony was finished.

C. OF C. OPENS 49TH MEETING

Annual Convention Studies Way To Aid State's War Effort.

The Associated Press COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—The Chamber of Commerce, an organization of Buckeye industrial and business men, opened its annual convention here today with a series of forums on the method of accelerating the state's war effort.

mouth. Chamber president, said "many critical and complex problems concerning production and manpower" would be considered. "Their solution is imperative," Williams asserted. "If plants are to be kept working at top speed and if production is to be stepped up steadily in the war effort."

The convention votes today on a resolution calling for enforcement of federal anti-strike legislation which would require compulsory mediation, a vote under government supervision before strikes could be called; prohibition of boycotts; limitation of picketing; severe penalties for violations of strike provisions; and authorization for courts to issue injunctions against boycotts and mass picketing.

Another resolution would oppose any increase in old age pensions, the establishment of federal health and disability insurance or the extension of the social security program; critics of the "trend towards centralization of government" urge the state to pursue an "anti-inflationary policy in the expenditure of public funds through reduction of the budget;" and favor consolidation of public and program under a single administrative agency.

New directors scheduled to be elected include Dr. H. N. Benek of Miami University.

Directors scheduled for re-election include C. L. Van Derau of Mansfield; B. B. Williams of Mt. Vernon; John W. Graham of Mansfield; Frank E. Funderburg of Springfield, and former Gov. George White of Marietta.

NELSON CAUTIONS WAR WILL BE LONG

Warns People Not To Be Too Over-Optimistic

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 12 — Cautioning against over-optimism over war developments, Donald M. Nelson warns that "what is happening in Africa is only a beginning, not an end. The German military organization is immeasurably powerful. It has lost heavily in Russia, but it will still take a lot of looking."

"And on the other side of the world," the war production board chief told the Association of National Advertisers last night, "we have only made the barest beginning in the conquest of the immense and wealthy territories seized by Japan."

He said "there is no present reason to suppose that this is going to be a short war," but he asserted that the American economy was sufficiently vital and flexible to crush the enemy without crumbling in the process.

Nelson declared that advertising was an "essential part of our communications system," adding:

"We dare not destroy or cripple that communications system in wartime, and we have no reason to believe that we will."

He also failed to identify Harry Jakobson, 45, of Oberlin, Ohio, who was sentenced to one to 10 years in prison for the theft of $250 worth of coats and jackets from stores here.

The police chief said the merchant failed to attempt identification.

Prosecutor Frederick Hanna said Mrs. Walsh, who is held here under $3,000 bond in connection with local store thefts, had identified herself as a woman athlete who gained world-wide fame in recent Olympic contests.

FLOUR MILLS HIT BY PRICE CONTROL

Storage Threatened Despite Scarce Wheat Stocks.

The Associated Press
Nov. 12—With flour in many sections of the country at a virtual deadlock, a famine of bread is developing, milling trade sources said today, unless a price squeeze is put on the anti-inflation program soon.

It is probable that a shortage of wheat will occur, millers view of the record of the year's glutting storage and trade reports. Flour sales are lagging since establishment of the flour ceiling on Oct. 3 have been up to the nation's millers.

Flour were reported unwilling to sell flour, and to take orders being said, the relationship between prices and flour is in a state of confusion. Flour does not permit sufficient profit.

There is no ceiling on flour prices, which are more than a bushel below the wholesale and retail bread prices. There has been limited sales under the general ceiling.

What is in the offing, interests reported. Many flour control officials and the government is getting ready to act, possibly to a far-reaching operation involving an additional subsidy to producers of wheat. They pointed out that the temporary flour ceiling expires early in December and that some relief may be afforded by the permanent limit.

Grain-men said the squeeze of wheat and flour prices is due largely to the government program. They said the government is offering loans to farmers who store wheat and keep it off the market at rates even with or actually higher than prices at which mills claim they must obtain wheat in order to operate under flour ceilings.

Sergeant's Face Red, He Forgets Pilot

By The Associated Press
AN ADVANCE BASE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC, Oct. 18—(Delayed)—Sergeant Ted Fuller of Canton, O., is the conscientious and embarrassed crew chief of a transport plane.

The plane was about to take off and Sergeant Fuller carefully checked the weight and the number of passengers. He found both just right and closed the cabin door.

Up dashed a jeep, a man jumped out, ran to the plane and pounded on the door. Fuller stuck his head out and said: "Sorry, there's no more room. We've got a full load now."

The newcomer just grinned and said: "Guess I'll have to go along, sergeant—I'm the pilot." Sergeant Fuller had failed to recognize Lieut. Col. Wynan P. Marshall of the Marines, from Washington, who was not wearing officers' insignia.

TO MEET AT ASHLEY
The Townsend club at Ashley will meet tonight in the township hall at 8 p. m. The meeting will be preceded by a supper.

Coyote Pack Destroyed in Northwestern Ohio

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12—A coyote pack that plagued farmers in three counties has been destroyed, but officials still would like to know how the animals got to Ohio.

L. C. Bailey of the state conservation and natural resources division said yesterday that Game Protector Irvin Palmer of Circleville and John Wilson of Waterbury had eliminated the pack, which killed chickens, turkeys, ducks and sheep in the "Oak Openings" area of Lucas, Henry and Wood counties.

Patrick trapped four of the coyotes—a female and three pups—and Wilson shot a fifth.

NAPOLEON'S BIRTHPLACE OCCUPIED BY NAZIS

In moving troops into unoccupied France, Focher Adolf Hitler also occupied the island of Corsica, which forms one of the departments of France. Corsica, birthplace of Napoleon, is located in the Mediterranean, southeast of France and separated from Italian Sardinia by the Strait of Bonifacio. Corsica is 110 miles long and 53 miles wide. The capital is Ajaccio, pictured above.

Germany placed Italy "in the front line" to perform his divisions from Greece to Italy.

A heavily fortified island, Corsica was being arranged in Yugoslavia and Hungary for German troops. It was a large force of transports, bombers and fighters was sighted yesterday afternoon flying southward off the Portuguese coast.

AFRICA

everywhere in French North Africa is "extremely satisfactory."

Eighth Army Advances

The RAF attack upon the Tunisian airfield was coupled with a continued advance by the Eighth Army.

These blows were aimed at German-Italian positions on the flanks of Tunisia, upon whose ports and airfields the axis is apparently basing its attempt to halt the allied conquest of North Africa's shores.

The German-Italian invasion of unoccupied France was reported in axis broadsheets to have been virtually completed and the Italians began occupation of Corsica. Political echoes persisted. But Gen. B. L. Montgomery's Eighth Army in Egypt and bombing of axis bases in Sardinia.

These blows were aimed at German-Italian positions on the flanks of Tunisia, upon whose ports and airfields the axis is apparently basing its attempt to halt the allied conquest of North Africa's shores.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, commander of the North African A.F.P., appealed to French naval crews by radio to "join the United Nations in the fight for freedom" by sailing for Gibraltar.

But Algeria and Morocco were already secured.

Movement of heavy German forces from the Russian front toward Italy and the Balkans was reported at Ankara, the capital of neutral Turkey.

American and British troops raced eastward across Algeria together—their rear protected in the final capitulation of colonial forces—to meet axis armies and marines reported landing on the air fields of Tunisia. French protectorate and one-time puppet state on the seaward salient of western Libya.

Some London observers said the aerial clash might be the greatest of all time. It was apparent that the allied forces were extending themselves in an effort to reach Tunis, the capital, and the nearby naval base of Bizerte and wipo onto the invaders before they get established.

Ninety miles northeast of Tunis across the central Mediterranean lies Sicily, Italian stepping stone for invasion which the allies may eventually use to reach Italy herself.

Observers estimated that the allied vanguard would be in the air across the Tunisian border by today. It was reported only yesterday in Bougie, 250 miles west of Bizerte.

German Force Estimated

Field reports indicated that the Germans had about 1,000 armoured, with dive-bombers and fighters, and some Italian marine detachments already assembled for the effort to cushion the shock of the allied drive upon Libya, a drive fully correlated with the British Eighth Army's victorious push from Egypt.

A possibility that Marshal Erwin Rommel would try to assemble the remnants of his African corps in Tunisia was among the angles considered in statistical discussions.

One estimate was that the axis might put 3,000 of its newest and best planes into the air arena and the United States and Britain would be expected to supply as many or more.

Berlin and Rome radios told of the flow of Nazi and Fascist troops across the goal which Vichy had regarded as its own for almost 30 months.

German military quarters said the Germans had reached all their objectives within 12 hours after they crossed the demarcation line by Adolf Hitler's order yesterday morning.

The Italians, after more than two years of shouting for Corsica, Nice and Savoy—mottos with which they entered the war against the faltering French in June, 1940—finally had an opportunity to move into those areas.

Italians were reported to have landed at Bastia, Corsica, and acknowledged the prospect of attack on Italy herself by withdrawing civilians from a 50-mile strip of the Ligurian sea coast between Genoa and Spezia.

It's Patriotic To Get Stung

A housewife bee-keeper inspects comb that will supply her with sugar substitute—honey.

Wide World Features

LOS ANGELES—Sugar rationing is adding fresh interest to the ancient business of bee-keeping. A cup of honey has more sweetness than a cup of granulated sugar in the ratio of 9 to 7. It contains roughly twice the caloric value of sugar.

Interest in small backyard apiaries is considerable, reflecting an axiom of the honey trade that when sugar is scarce, honey booms. On the commercial side this means wide use by bakers and at home its substitution for sugar in many ways.

In advising amateur bee-keepers, J. E. Eckert, University of California expert, tackles at the start the matter of getting stung. "The sting of the honey bee generally hurts even the seasoned bee-keeper," he concedes. "However, immunity to the poison can be acquired gradually, until the effect is not noticeable after the first few minutes."

Bee-keeping is so standardized after centuries of experience that you buy bees by the package. A "three-pound package" sells for about $1 and contains some 15,000 bees.

A dozen odds and ends needed to start a single back-yard hive cost about $12. These include such specialties as the "smoker," "hive tool" and "queen excluder," and the important folding veil to protect the face.

Authorities stress the importance of having a superior queen for the hive, since she lays the eggs and determines the type of offspring.

In California, revenue from honey and beeswax is often augmented by renting bee colonies to orchardists, as bees are sometimes priceless in cross-pollinating the fruit trees.

TUNISIA

French naval base in the Mediterranean. Bizerte is only 150 miles from the Italian island of Sicily and some 300 miles from the toe of the Italian boot. Ships moving from Gibraltar to Suez must go through a bottleneck only 85 miles between Sicily and the Cape Bon headland on the Tunisian coast. With Tunisia, Mussolini could pretty well control east-west traffic in the Mediterranean.

The immediate urgency for axis occupation of Tunisia is the protectorate's position as a backstop for the shattered armies in Libya. Tripoli, the main axis base in Libya, is only 90 miles from the Tunisian border.

The protectorate has four well-equipped ports—Bizerte, Tunis, Sousse and Sfax.

American troops will not find the Tunisian roads anything to compare with the Lincoln highway. There are about 3,200 miles of roads, good and bad, and about 1,200 miles of railroad.

Tunisia proper covers about 27,500 square miles and has a history stretching back more than 2,700 years when the ancient state of Carthage was founded in the region.

The population in 1936 was 2,608,000 including 108,088 French and 91,289 Italians. Tunis, the capital and chief commercial center, has a population of about 250,000.

NAZI AIR POWER DECLINES IN RUSSIA

Hitler Believed Withdrawing Planes to South Europe.

MOSCOW, Nov. 12.—A sharp reduction in German air activity over the Stalingrad front was reported today in Soviet military dispatches, which noted that the Nazis were using outdated planes and dropping only small bombs. (This might indicate a shifting of first line air units to other fronts, perhaps southern Europe.)

During the past 24 hours, barely two hundred flights over the lines were observed, the newspaper Pravda said, by comparison with a previous daily average of 1,500 to 2,000 daily.

The German raids were aimed at Russian communication lines. Damage inflicted on towns and villages on the east bank of the Volga was small and no deaths were caused, the dispatches said.

Two companies of Nazi infantry were decimated by Russian gunfire at one point within the city. At another a group of enemy troops was wiped out and in a third place Red army men surrounded a block of buildings and killed 180 Nazis with hand grenades, the mid-day communique declared.

"Northwest of Stalingrad," the bulletin added, "two battalions of German infantry attacked our troops in an inhabited locality. Soviet artillery and infantry repulsed the Germans, killing 100 of them."

In the Caucasus, the Russians said that their troops had repulsed a tank-supported attack southeast of Malschik, killing 200 of the enemy.

On the bitterly cold central front west of Moscow, Soviet troops were reported to have slain 400 Germans in sharp encounters.

Senator's Swimming Pool Brings WPB Penalty

CLIVE, Nov. 12.—The office of war information announced today a war production board order penalizing the Colonial Supply Co. of Louisville for constructing a $3,500 swimming pool on Senator A. B. Chandler's estate without obtaining WPB authorization.

The OWI said the WPB charged the company with using war materials on a ration which indicated they were for maintenance, repair or operating supply purchases, and that the alleged violations were described in a WPB order as "willful" and as having "hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States."

The Louisville concern is barred for three months from obtaining any material regulated by the WPB, the OWI added.

Hunting Ammunition Low

Marion Sales Rationed; Season Opening Nov. 20 Probably Last Till War's Over.

"Pray the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" was the theme song of Marion county hunters this year.

They're going to be a careful crew of men and boys, these 1943 hunters. They'll go into the fields and woods on Nov. 20 armed, but with the last rations of ammunition in sight for them for the duration of the war.

A survey this morning of Marion dealers in ammunition revealed that unless the war ends suddenly it will be the hunters' last expeditions until the war is over.

All but one dealer contacted is rationing his stock, one had a customer. One of the largest dealers, who had thousands of shells on hand a few weeks ago, was sold out this morning except for a few boxes of 12 and 16 gauge shells. One dealer reported a large supply on hand and said he was not rationing it.

Laid in supply "I think the boys got wind of the coming shortage and did what women did with nylon hose, sugar and coffee—stocked up ahead of time," one dealer said.

Shells sold this year were made in 1941. Normally, the munitions plants would now be engaged in making supplies for the 1942 hunting season.

As Hitler, Mussolini and Hirohito are learning fast, the United States' munitions plants are now supplying all their missiles of death to the armed forces.

No more ammunition for the pleasure of hunters will be manufactured until after Uncle Sam has completed his present job—and no civilian hunter would have it otherwise, the dealers explained.

Nearly All Gone A dealer who normally has an unlimited supply of ammunition for hunters expressed the opinion that virtually all supplies will be exhausted before the hunting season opens.

Another said he had had a fair stock on hand and started the one-box-to-a-customer ration to spread the supply over a greater number of customers. "If people would be reasonable, if they'd use their heads,

BERLIN REPORTS AXIS ATTACKS ON ALGIERS

Hits Claimed on Warships Conveying Americans.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN (FROM GERMAN BROADCASTS), Nov. 12.—The German high command said today that axis planes had bombed American-held Algiers and that German planes had scored hits with heavy bombs on an aircraft carrier, a cruiser and a big merchant ship off the Algerian coast.

The communique said that two transports totaling 16,000 tons were sunk at Bougie, the allied-occupied port 110 miles east of Algiers, and that "continuous waves" of axis planes attacked a landing group and damaged 12 warships, merchant ships and passenger ships.

In this group of damaged ships, it was said, were another aircraft carrier, a heavy cruiser and two destroyers.

Meanwhile, in the western Mediterranean German submarines sank a troop transport of 19,600 tons, another of 12,000 tons and a freighter of 4,000 tons, while two warships, including a destroyer and a guardship, were damaged, the communique said.

This destroyer was in a formation including an aircraft carrier off Algiers, it was said.

In the Atlantic a submarine attack resulted in hits on three other ships in a convoy off Casablanca, the communique continued.

It said military objectives in the harbor of Algiers as well as the vicinity of the airbase were destroyed by bomb hits.

On the Egyptian border it reported heavy fighting with a strong British tank formation.

Oyster Recipe In Menu

By BETSY NEWMAN

This wartime is no time to be fussy about what we eat, except inasmuch as we must include the necessary protective foods in our diets. From the smallest child up to Grandpa and Grandma, every member of the household should eat what is set before them, whether it is their favorite dish or not. Mother can do much to this end by seeing to it that meals are well-balanced and wisely seasoned, and also served attractively.

GRANDDAD WAS PIKER AS IOWA CORN KING

This Generation Beats His Bump or Crops Easily.

By The Associated Press

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 12—Three bumper corn crops granddaddy used to boast about were just drops in the bucket compared with what their grandchild is raising in this second world war.

When granddad got 40 bushels to the acre 30 years ago he was the king farmer in his community. But the men who followed him on the old homestead using nothing of raising nearly twice that amount and fields that yield 100 bushels an acre are no longer a novelty in Iowa.

Hybrid corn is the reason two ears are growing where little more than one grew 30 years ago, the opinion of Leslie H. Cook, Iowa's agricultural statistician for 1942.

The department of agriculture estimated yesterday that Iowa's 1942 corn crop would average 61 bushels an acre. In 1912, an estimated yield of 55 bushels an acre, and Illinois and Indiana with 54, were the only near rivals to the Hawkeye yield.

Hybrid corn, a development of inbreeding and cross-breeding, produces 20 to 25 per cent more corn to the acre than the old fashioned open pollinated variety, the statistician estimated.

To help Granddaddy develop the varied representative of the 1942 states government most has adopted the very best of rubber, mining, sugar, oil, wool, food, timber, and other and other special laws.

No Extra Coffee Even for Marine Home from Pacific

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO—The waiter was firm in his refusal to serve a second cup of coffee even though the customer wore a marine corps uniform.

"You're lucky to get one cup," the customer was told.

The man in the Marine corps uniform smiled.

"Maybe I am," he said. "Sorry, I was just trying to catch up."

The man and his companions were U. S. Marine corps paratroopers—some of the hundreds of heroes of the Solomon islands battle. They had just arrived from Guadalcanal.

The coffee drinker was Captain James H. Myers Jr., 32, former Toledo, Ohio, businessman. His companions were Captain T. M. Lunsford, 26-year-old Toledo man; and Captain W. J. McKennan, 25, square-jawed Marine corps officer from Herkimer, N. Y., who carries several pieces of shrapnel as his memento of the Solomons.

Captain Myers said coffee was a very scarce article when he left the Solomons.

The paratrooper officers, here on leave, told of constant Japanese attacks on Guadalcanal.

"Sleeping in slit trenches sometimes with only sparse rations and light blankets to cover them, these Marines are taking a punishment the American people cannot comprehend," declared Captain McKennan.

The officers characterized the Japanese soldier as a fighter who practices "bravery beyond human conception."

"They have utter contempt for the white man and will gladly die rather than be taken prisoner," McKennan said.

He related that in several instances Japanese had attacked tanks with nothing but clubs.

"A Japanese soldier is not civilized," was the trio's consensus.

New Stages for War

TRIPOLI, largest city in Libya, has a population of 108,000. It is the best harbor between Alexandria and Tunis. Homes are built on hills overlooking the shore.

TUNIS, two cities: one European, modern and gay, the other, an old city with buildings dating from the 13th to 15th century. Total population 220,000.

ALGIERS, with 250,000 people, is a European-type city with wide, arcaded streets. Before the war it was known as the French Empire in the mountain.

U. S. TROOPS

As the day and hour for landing on the beach just east of Algiers grew nearer, the atmosphere thickened with evidence of the men's desire to get into action for which they had been training intensively for almost two years.

In every camp and in every corner of the large troop quarters, men were tentatively cleaning their small arms and loading clips and drums with ammunition. Deeper in the hordes of soldiers in canvas fatigues were going last-minute adjustments to their light tanks, heavy guns and numerous vehicles they planned to take into battle "combat loaded" so that men and equipment could be landed on a hostile shore in the shortest time, under fire if necessary.

The troops were well on the way on the last leg of their journey before they learned their mission. Battalion and executive officers were assembled in the wardroom of one of the battle units and told by the commander of one of the attacking forces.

Explains Job Ahead

With maps and photographs he explained the general headquarters order. He sketched the whole picture in general terms and then in great detail pictured the task of his "battle team."

He pointed to the main objective of his force on the map and said "our objective is to take that point and, damn it, nothing is going to stop us. Your orders are to keep going regardless of what happens."

In a formal order to a combat team the colonel declared the operation must continue "no matter how tough the going is, how tired we get or what the opposition is. I am proud of all of you and I know that we are going to be successful in this supreme adventure. Let us all bow humbly before the great God of battles and pray that we may live up to our heritage of being an army which has never started a war, but which has never lost one."

"So, with 'For God and Country' on our lips and in our hearts, we enter the battle for preservation of our homes, our families, our institutions and for the preservation of civilization itself," the colonel concluded.

As I was sitting on my steel helmet with my typewriter on a chair in a cabin disordered by hasty packing of clothes and weapons writing this story, the voice of the colonel came over the loud speaker in a final talk to his command.

"In just a few hours we are going over the side of the ship and it is a hard run," he said.

He warned the men to respect native customs, be friendly to people and "not to shoot unless the situation demands it." Then he ended.

"Go out and do your job like soldiers and God bless you!"

We have room in this country for but one flag, the Stars and Stripes. We have room for but one loyalty, loyalty to the United States. We have room for but one language, the English language—(Theodore Roosevelt)

Officers Elected by Church Circle

The officers of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church were elected last night. Mrs. F. H. Jones was elected president, Mrs. R. L. Jones, secretary, Mrs. R. L. Jones, treasurer, Mrs. R. L. Jones, and Mrs. R. L. Jones.

"It's Kill or Be Killed"

U. S. General Declares

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—Soldiers of the American ground forces have the word of their commanding general that they are in a struggle for survival—kill or be killed.

Li Gen Leeley J. McNair made the statement last night, adding in a radio address that soldiers "must have the fighting spirit."

He declared that "the fighting spirit means developing a habit, a habit of being a very fierce and a very brave."

There need be no pang of conscience, he continued, for our enemies have fought the way to faster, surer and crueler killing. They are just misters. We must hurry to catch up to them if we are to survive. Since killing is the object of our effort, the soldier must get a kick out of it, the better and more skillful we shall be when the test comes.

In a formal order to a combat team the colonel declared the operation must continue "no matter how tough the going is, how tired we get or what the opposition is. I am proud of all of you and I know that we are going to be successful in this supreme adventure. Let us all bow humbly before the great God of battles and pray that we may live up to our heritage of being an army which has never started a war, but which has never lost one."

"So, with 'For God and Country' on our lips and in our hearts, we enter the battle for preservation of our homes, our families, our institutions and for the preservation of civilization itself," the colonel concluded.

As I was sitting on my steel helmet with my typewriter on a chair in a cabin disordered by hasty packing of clothes and weapons writing this story, the voice of the colonel came over the loud speaker in a final talk to his command.

"In just a few hours we are going over the side of the ship and it is a hard run," he said.

He warned the men to respect native customs, be friendly to people and "not to shoot unless the situation demands it." Then he ended.

"Go out and do your job like soldiers and God bless you!"

Let us all bow humbly before the great God of battles and pray that we may live up to our heritage of being an army which has never started a war, but which has never lost one."

JAPS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—On ground and in the air American and allied troops are inflicting heavy damage on Japanese in the South Pacific, inflicting heavy damage on equipment and driving back enemy land forces on New Guinea and Guadalcanal.

The aerial attacks for the most part of a harassing nature, intended apparently to prevent assaults on allied positions and forestall the bringing up of reinforcements or supplies.

But on the ground, official reports indicate the action is a strong offensive, pushing back the Japanese attempting to recapture Henderson field on Guadalcanal and encircling enemy positions on the northeast coast of New Guinea.

At Ovi on New Guinea, Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur's headquarters reported the enemy had been forced from his main positions with heavy losses.

A banking movement there by Australian troops has cut off the Japanese retreat and the enemy is being driven back to the coast.

But American troops are on hand to prevent that maneuver, flown by aerial transport to the vicinity of Buna, 35 miles north-east of the Ovi battleground in the Owen Stanley mountain area.

Simultaneously on New Guinea another force of allied jungle fighters wiped out enemy troops surrounded south of Gurari.

The aerial warfare again has reached beyond the South Pacific to the far North Atlantic and resulted in the shooting down of a German plane and the destruction of 15 enemy planes and possible damage to another.

At Kiska, where there has been virtually no action for several weeks, Army bombers attacked and damaged two Japanese cargo vessels. Army planes also roared down on Haka bay on Attu Island near the end of the Aleutian archipelago and destroyed seven boat-equipped Japanese fighting planes. They encountered no opposition.

STIMSON SAYS AXIS

KNEW OF ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—Secretary of War Stimson said today that despite efforts to keep the North African expedition a secret, the enemy apparently suspected an attack and was believed to have concentrated an extremely large force of submarines in that area.

"The Army," he told his press conference, "is deeply grateful to the Navy in executing our troops through waters which we know were infested with submarines."

Stimson said that despite the secrecy of the operations it would have been foolish to underestimate the enemy's intelligence to the extent of assuming the axis knew nothing of the proposed attack.

One troop ship was disabled by enemy torpedoes, Stimson said, but the troops aboard launched their landing boats and went ashore.

Stimson said the entire North African operation proved that the Japanese, now as always, has a leading part in warfare, and has not been replaced by more recently developed arms.

"In talking about commandos, paratroops, and air troops," the secretary said, "you want to remember that they are especially selected assault infantrymen, trained for landings in hostile territory and for overcoming a particular type of opposition."

$500 Fire Loss At

Hane Avenue Home

Fire caused damage amounting to $500 to a room and furniture at the home of H. V. Brennan at 306 Hane avenue Tuesday night.

The cause of the fire, which was in an upstairs room used as a den and study room, was undetermined. Firemen from the central fire station answered the call.

SECRET TRIP

13, of Honesdale, Pa., Col. Archibald L. Hamilton, 46, of Marion, Col. Julius C. Holmes, 45, a former member of the American diplomatic service, Capt. Jerrold Wright of the U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C., and Commanding Captains C. J. Courtney, R. T. Livingston and Lieut. J. D. Foot, many U. S. friends.

"About three weeks before the campaign opened it became evident there was a large group of Frenchmen in North Africa anxious to cooperate with America and it became essential to send a staff of professional officers to contact and make use of these men and obtain essential military information," said General Eisenhower in telling of the mission "Message to Garcia" that led to speedy conclusion of the 7-hour occupation campaign.

"Clark and all men of the mission volunteered enthusiastically."

(Part in Gallagher's story is missing at this point.)

"The house was filled with French military officers in uniform, although they had come in civilian clothes," said Clark.

"We conferred all day and night until we had gathered all the information we wanted."

Meanwhile Arab servants had decided that something suspicious was going on and had gone to the axis-controlled Vichy police. The conference of American and French officers received word that police were on the way.

Plenty of excitement

"I never saw such excitement in my life," Clark said with a laugh. Maps disappeared like lightning. A French general in military uniform changed into civilian clothes in a minute flat, and I lost saw him going out the window. They were going in all directions."

Clark and his staff gathered up their papers and guns and hid in an empty wine cellar as police talked to the owner of the house over their heads.

One of the commando officers whispered, "I'm afraid I hold this cough back any longer I'm going to choke to death."

"I'm afraid you won't choke," Clark joked.

The tall angular American general crouched in the cellar with a revolver in one hand and 15,000 francs in his pocket.

"If the police came down I was undecided whether to shoot them or bribe them," he said.

After spending an hour hidden away, the police departed, partly satisfied.

The mission members decided it was no time to linger and, gathering their papers together, they departed.

It was then that they lost their pants and shirts and practically everything else when their boats upset crossing some water nearby.

Lost clothes and $18,000

"We lost almost every stitch of our clothes and I lost some $18,000 in gold," Clark laughed. "I wonder if Morgenthau (U. S. secretary of the treasury) will get after me for that."

The party scrambled ashore with only their papers and underclothes, and hid in the woods through the day, alternately walking and shivering.

Finally they reached a secret destination where a transport awaited them out to North Africa.

Even then their mission remained secret. They reached London just eight days after the start of their journey.

"The fact that land resistance was not terrifically great anywhere and we did not have to land in a place where the opposition was great testified to the success of Clark's mission," Eisenhower said.

"I am exceedingly proud of them. They took great risks and accomplished their work. It was a modern message to Garcia."

All the men taking part in the mission, including the commandos who played a large part in its success, will be recommended for decorations.

(An International News Service correspondent, whose report was furnished to The Associated Press by the military pooling of communication facilities, said Clark's mission brought back complete plans of all French military installations in North Africa, dispositions of troops who were friendly and could be depended upon, numbers of troops and equipment, and even arrangements for the airfields outside Algiers to be delivered to American air forces the moment landings began.)

Switzerland's potato crop this year, estimated at 1,200,000 metric tons, was about 19 per cent larger than last year.

PRESIDENT SETS 2

DAYS FOR PRAYER

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—In an unusual proclamation, President Roosevelt called upon the American people today to observe both Thanksgiving and New Year's as days of prayer.

Devout of the "whereas" of customary presidential proclamations, this one started with a quotation from the 32nd Psalm: "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."

After reciting the 23rd Psalm, Mr. Roosevelt said in his proclamation:

"Inspired with faith and courage by these words, let us turn again to the work that confronts us in this time of national emergency: in the armed services and the merchant marine in factories and offices on farms and in the mines on highways, railways and airways; in other places of public service to the nation; and in our homes."

The proclamation of two national days of prayer followed numerous requests from religious organizations and church leaders throughout the country asking that this step be taken. The last day of prayer proclaimed by Mr.

Roosevelt was last New Year's day.

Mr. Roosevelt said it was fitting to recall now the reverent words of George Washington, "Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection and that every American may in his own way lift his voice to heaven."

MILWAUKEE BOWLERS LIKE NO. 13 ALLEY

Where Best Scores of Season Have Been Made.

Associated Press
Milwaukee, Nov. 12—No. 13 alley for Milwaukee bowlers.

During the last few days of the season, the Milwaukee bowling establishment has been the scene of a great many high scores. One of the best of these was made by a team of three bowlers, who turned in a total of 753, 822, and 822 for an average of 234.3 for the season. This team, consisting of the late Harry W. Smith, who died recently, and two other bowlers, has been the leading team in the city for some time.

Don McNeill Wins In Argentine Net Tourney

By The Associated Press
BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 12—Don McNeill, formerly of Kenyon college at Gambier, O., won his second start in defense of the Argentine national tennis championship yesterday. He defeated the local veteran, Augusto Zappa, 6-3, 6-4, 11-8.

HARDING

Coaches Vic Dennis and Joe Puch are battling against a feeling of over-confidence which might invade their encampment. Undoubtedly this is one of the chief worries in preparing for a team with as poor a record as the Gallions.

Since the start of the season the Orangemen's coach, Jimmy Lomper has been pointing for an upset win over the championship Marion Harding team. A Gallion win at this time in the season would compensate for all of the Orangemen's previous losses and also would make a stinging defeat administered by Harding since 1938.

Dad's Day Program

The game Friday will be the last scholastic football game for 17 senior members of the Harding varsity. The game has been set aside for the Harding Hi-Y club's annual Dad's day program. Partners of all of the varsity players will be introduced during the halftime intermission. Charles Sidenstricker and Jack Burroughs, both members of the Senior Hi-Y club, are in charge of arrangements for the program.

Friday's engagement will be the twenty-first grid game between the two teams. In the first 20, each club has won 10 games. The Orangemen last won in 1938, when they defeated Harding 30-12.

Here's the results of the previous Marion-Gallion games:

1922—Gallion 13, Marion 0
1923—Gallion 26, Marion 20
1924—Gallion 19, Marion 0
1926—Gallion 6, Marion 0
1927—Marion 13, Gallion 0
1928—Marion 19, Gallion 7
1929—Gallion 14, Marion 0
1930—Gallion 7, Marion 0
1931—Marion 18, Gallion 13
1932—Gallion 13, Marion 7
1933—Gallion 12, Marion 7
1934—Marion 12, Gallion 0
1935—Gallion 21, Marion 14
1936—Marion 19, Gallion 0
1937—Gallion 7, Marion 0
1938—Marion 30, Marion 12
1939—Marion 54, Gallion 6
1940—Marion 34, Gallion 0
1941—Marion 68, Gallion 0

Yanks' Boss of Second Front

COWBOY. Born at Denison, Texas, of Swiss ancestry, Eisenhower was raised in Kansas. He worked as cowboy and ditch digger to pay for schooling, went to West Point because he could not get into Annapolis. Played football on the Army football team, he broke a leg.

CAPTAIN. After serving as captain in World War I, he attended many army schools, studying tanks and all other phases of mechanized warfare. In 1935 he became MacArthur's assistant in planning Philippine defenses. There he learned to pilot a plane.

YEAR and a half ago Dwight D. Eisenhower was a lieutenant colonel. Today he is a five-star general, leading the American Expeditionary Force in North Africa. He is the boss of the second front.

CHIEF. As Chief of Staff of the 'Blue Army' in maneuvers in Louisiana in 1941, Eisenhower won military acclaim as a tactician. Assigned to London soon after the defeat plans leading to U. S. troops' occupation of Italy in North Africa.

LOCAL FRONT

member of the N.C.O., considered a pretty slow competitive circuit, is the first and foremost factor in keeping Prexy stars off of either top state teams. Most certainly more than one of the stars developed under the Williams-Niemel regime earned, and fearfully, first team honors. Where, outside of Massillon, could a college coach find a better guard than either Wayne Short or Martin Lewis or a better center than King Keller or a better quarterback back than Bill Walters? However, all four of these youths at their best never rated better than honorable mention or any of the all-state squads. The point is Harding, is the best in the N.C.O. by "margin" of record, but the Prexies get a chance to show their talent outside of the league circle only too infrequently.

There is a remedy. Harding officials, if they decide to remedy this situation, of course cannot take action until the end of the present season. The league's annual meeting following the current season seemingly would be a good time to take remedial action.

One other factor prominent in keeping out leading schoolboys stars off of mythical squads now stands out like a sore thumb. It may be just an oversight. I don't know, but I do know it can be remedied if the leading coaching staff will play the leading players more than half of each game.

In choosing the state's top performers statisticians, coaches and sports writers check the statistics of each performer in question. If they find a boy shows up only about average against a comparatively weak team like Shelby, they may not consider the youth at all.

And here the point is that Harding's new coaches, if they are to be fair with their more talented charges, must allow these youths a chance to play as long as seems ethically possible. And we are not advocating a platform to "rub it in" on weaker foes.

In last week's Shelby game second, third and fourth stringers played almost as long as several members of the first eleven. With only a few exceptions the first team is composed of seniors. For two years most of these youths were substitutes for other youths. And now they have reached the point where they should be 48-minute men. But as most fans already know, these youths are practically substitutes for the less talented members of the Dorris-coached squad.

Also Affects Attendance. And while members of the team are chiefly affected by this new coaching policy, it also can be noticed on the game attendance. Last week's Shelby game, an N.C.O. affair, was only an average attraction but the attendance was estimated at 1,800, wasn't even average.

The downtown coaches also are beginning to get uneasy. These wolves became almost extinct during the successful Williams-Niemel regime, but once more they are sounding the call to the colors.

Your correspondent has sat in on at least a dozen impromptu sessions in the last week during which considerable criticism was voiced against the policy of using "green" underclassmen while the real stars of the team are sitting on the bench.

These same self-appointed coaches are crying for higher scores. "For years Gallion, Bucyrus and Shelby beat Harding by big scores. Why not point it on when we are in control of the ball?"

This is the opinion of the man in the stadium. Asked whether or not he feels Harding should step out of the N.C.O., Mr. Average Downtown Coach in most cases is quick to reply in the affirmative.

Schedule Suggestions

Marion is more or less the axis of a great football-playing section of the state, within a 50-75 miles radius of most of the state's top teams. We suggest the Hardings continue to play one or another of the Lima teams, keep Sandusky on the schedule, resume play with one of the best Toledo teams, if possible schedule a fast Cleveland team, add a Columbus foe, against establish relations with Mansfield, and there you have a great independent schedule.

Win, lose or draw, the boys will be learning good football and for once they will be in their own competitive bracket.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

"NO, I DO NOT," my father said with such emphasis that I knew he already had planned what to do after Noel and Mary awakened from their drugged sleep.

"They must both be put on guard," he went on. "I now think it unlikely that Noel will try anything like this again. His value to the gang is greatly enhanced by his holding his position here, with his countless opportunities for espionage. Veritzen has put the fear of God into him, and I am sure he will not risk another overt act like this."

"Besides, Noel and Mary are entitled to know what happened to them, and I shall tell them myself as soon as they are awake. But I want you near, Margaret. No Mary will not be so startled at my being here. Yet there is no couch here, and you simply must have some rest. It may be hours before they awaken."

Plans Rest For Madge

"I have it," he said, after a pause. "We no longer need Adam in that adjoining apartment. I will send him away now, and you go in there and lie down. Leave that camouflage door open, so that when Mary awakens, Richard or I can call you. Does that suit you?"

"Perfectly," I told him, but was sure I would be roused by Mary's first stirring on awakening.

I was right, for when three hours later Mary stirred and exclaimed wonderingly: "Why! How did I come to fall asleep here? I was at her side almost immediately, and put my hand soothingly on her arm as she roused up and looked at Noel, sprawled on the couch and still sleeping soundly."

"Seeing Things"

"For the love of Abraham and all the rest of the patriarchs!" she said, "am I seeing things? Is that Noel parked on a couch over there? Surely that couch wasn't here last night!"

"No, it wasn't," I said. "Now, dearest, just lie still and I will explain everything. Now I'll call room service and have coffee and croissant sent up. Then later you'll have breakfast."

"You talk as if it'd been on a bat and had a hangover," she said. "Why, the very last thing I remember is drinking coffee with Noel."

"That's the last thing I remember, too," Noel said from the other bed, and I knew our voices had awakened him. "And now I'm in here on the same couch I swear was in the other room when we were drinking our coffee."

Hot Coffee First

"I have a queer story to tell you about last night," he said, "but first you must have that hot coffee."

I was already at the telephone, giving the order and an injunction.

ment. One of my patients noticed it first when his father decided he was not coming to a hunting he was a gun on his shoulder all day and this resulted in pain and numbness in his arm, which was easily associated with a cervical rib.

Another took up violin lessons at the age of eight, and the demand of his mother, his attraction to the violin was nil, and it was only because his mother's father had been a violinist that he started lessons. As soon as he started lessons, he began to have a pain in the arm.

At first his mother naturally thought he was taking, but just to settle things she consented to a medical examination; the cervical rib was found and the mother was firmly persuaded her son should not attempt the violin. I believe that boy is the most grateful patient I ever had. He cannot even hear to hear a violin played nowadays, and though time has passed, he sends me a Christmas card every year, with a violin drawn thereon.

It will be seen from these two case histories that the symptoms of cervical rib do not begin to manifest themselves, if at all, until adolescence.

Symptoms—when they do occur—can be divided into nervous or circulatory, depending on whether the rib presses on or interferes with the action of nerves or blood vessels. Among the nervous symptoms are: dilated pupil on one side, hoarseness due to pressure on the laryngeal nerve, sweating of the face on one side, numbness, pain or paralysis of the arm.

The circulatory disturbances are usually shown by the arm flushing and getting painfully congested when hanging down or when hard work is done. Cold weather also brings these symptoms on.

A cervical rib can be removed surgically, but usually the symptoms are so slight that the patient would rather stand them than take the risk.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
H. S. E.—Are watermelon and cantaloupe harmful to a diabetic?

Answer: No food in itself is against or harmful to a diabetic—only the amount of starches taken in. If your starch consumption allows you a slice of watermelon or cantaloupe, they will do no harm.

J. H. C.—Is it true that eating coffee grounds is a bad thing? I have heard of people eating coffee grounds to cure appendicitis.

Answer: No, nothing that is eaten causes appendicitis. About the time of the Chicago World's Fair there was a belief that grape seeds caused appendicitis. This rumor died soon after and I had thought it stayed dead.

But the chances are that no symptoms sufficient to bother the possessor of one of these curiosities will ever arise, and then only if the subject does some special kind of work or engages in an unusual form of muscular movement.
